James Dixon Primary School

Dear Parents/Carers,

World Book Week will start on 8th March

Due to this year's unfortunate scenario, we have decided to change World Book Day for the better. It will now be a whole week of fun activities which will begin when everyone is back at school; this will mean all children can be involved.

Do I need a costume?

No! Each year group will have a specific book they will be exploring for the week, chosen by their class teacher.

This will mean that costumes for the parade will be made in school, by the children. The parade will be filmed in separate sections so no year group bubbles will be broken.

What else is happening?

- 1 book, chosen by class teacher which will be the focus of the week's learning.
- Costumes will be made in school – so no need to buy anything!
- James Dixon Spell-tacular is back – the school-wide spelling competition which enables all children to contribute regardless of age or ability.
- In-school video calls between classes to show their art, drama, maths and English work which has taken place that week.
- A film of the 'parade' and the work taking place will be made to show to all children at school.

Thank you for your support,
Mr George
English Leader
