Dear Parents and Carers,

You're Amazing!

We know that educating your child at home is not always easy. We understand that being the teacher, teaching assistant, midday supervisor, administrator and parent is a big ask. We just wanted to let you know that we think you're amazing and we really do appreciate all of the positive feedback you have given us.

This Friday 29th January your child is invited to our second live session with their class teacher this will now become a JD connected regular feature. The session will always be hosted via Google Meet which will be accessed on Google Classroom.
